

the ivy circle of the netherlands and invite you to a

tea and chocolate tasting saturday, the tenth of november two thousand and twelve at

16.30

as this event is held at a private residence in amsterdam, please RSVP for location donation of 10 € per person requested to offset the cost of the chocolates and tea limited space available.

please contact chau-jean lin at +31 61 456 7749 or chaujean@yahoo.com for more information

Not sure what the difference between a green, oolong, or black tea is? Learn a little about the world of tea! Experience a traditional Taiwanese tea service. Along with the tea, have a taste of chocolate!

Tea tasting will be performed with Chau-Jean Lin, founder of Marulin Tea. Her family owns tea gardens and tea production facilities in Nantou, Taiwan. Her aunt has been a tea master for 20 years, and her father was a tea farmer. She works with chefs in Amsterdam and supplies to a Michelin starred restaurant in Paris, France.

Chocolates for this event are chosen in collaboration with Franck and Karine Mendivé of Saint Palais, France near the Pyrenees. Franck and Karine have been chocolatiers for more than 20 years. Franck comes from a line of pastry chefs. His grandparent s opened their pastry shop in 1938, and it has been passed down from one generation to the next.

