

New Exhibition Opening at The Merchant House

In response to Covid-19's impact on the cultural sector, The Merchant House continues to offer a platform to many of its exemplary artists. The new cross-generational group show The Indispensable Experience of Art highlights how—withstanding their distinctive work—five artists share a predilection for material texture and non-linear geometry to mold color into a powerful language. Adventurous and socially surprising art making at its best.

With works of André de Jong (NL, 1945), Pino Pinelli (IT, 1938), André Stempfel (FR, 1930), Mary Sue (assumed identity), Elsa Tomkowiak (FR, 1981).

On view from 25 November 2020.

Join us during Amsterdam Gallery Weekend (25-29 November) and for a happy hour on Fridays, 17:00-19:00. Social distancing rules apply. For more info visit: www.merchanthouse.nl

André Stempfel, Il-igne, 2019

THE MERCHANT HOUSE
PRESENTS

The Indispensable Experience of Art

On view from 25 November 2020